Geography

The study of geography is about more than just memorizing places on a map. It's about understanding the complexity of our world, appreciating the diversity of cultures that exists across continents. And in the end, it's about using all that knowledge to help bridge divides and bring people together.

Intent	Implementation	Impact
What will take place before teaching in the classroom?	What will this look like in the classroom?	How will this be measured?
The school's senior leadership team will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Lead the school staff to develop a clear overarching curriculum intent which drives the ongoing development and improvement of all curriculum subjects.</li><li>• Ensure that the curriculum leaders have appropriate time to develop their specific curriculum intent through careful research and development.</li><li>• Provide sufficient funding to ensure that implementation is high quality.</li></ul>	Our teaching sequence will be: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Will start with 'The Big Question' – setting the scene for geographical enquiry and learning that is about to take place within the chronology of pupils learning and skill development to date. Starting with what the children know, understand, are able to do and able to say.</li><li>• Review/ recap most recent learning in geography.</li><li>• Specify key vocabulary to be used and its meaning.</li><li>• Specify geographical skills to be used.</li><li>• Provide opportunities for the children to work interactively</li><li>• Provide opportunities for children to critically review their own work and that of others.</li><li>• Reflect individually on their learning and the geographical skills used and acquired.</li></ul>	Pupil Voice will show: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• A developed understanding of the geographical skills and vocabulary at an age appropriate level.</li><li>• A secure understanding when considering information in a variety of geographical sources for each key area of the curriculum.</li><li>• A progression of understanding, with appropriate vocabulary which supports and extends understanding.</li><li>• Confidence in discussing geography, their own work and identifying their own strengths and areas for development.</li></ul>

The curriculum leader will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Understand and articulate the expectations of the curriculum to support high quality teaching and support staff in the delivery of this.</li> <li>• Ensure an appropriate progression of skills document is in place which ensures continuity, progression and knowledge / skills development throughout the age phases.</li> <li>• Monitor progression of skills and knowledge throughout year groups using the assessment grid criteria information.</li> <li>• Support teachers when supporting struggling children and extend more competent children, celebrating the achievements of all.</li> <li>• Ensure an appropriate progression for vocabulary and skills is in place for each phase of learning, which builds on prior learning.</li> <li>• Keep up to date with subject developments and share good practise and support materials eg. Transition project.</li> </ul>	Our classrooms will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Provide appropriate quality equipment for each area of the curriculum.</li> <li>• Have developed displays which include actual pieces of work, examples of the big question being studied, secondary source materials and carefully chosen vocabulary, and which are regularly updated.</li> <li>• Be organised so that pupils can work in small groups or whole class as appropriate to support pupils in their development of their skills.</li> <li>• Deploy appropriately challenging selections of texts, both non-fiction and fiction, accessible throughout learning to develop wider understanding and underpin reading skills.</li> </ul>	Displays around school and work books will show: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Pupils have had opportunities for practice and refinement of skills.</li> <li>• A varied and engaging curriculum which develops a range of geographical skills.</li> <li>• Developed and final pieces of work which showcase the skills learned.</li> <li>• Clear progression of skills in line with expectations set out in the progression grids.</li> <li>• That pupils, over time, develop a range of skills and make links across all of the areas of the geography curriculum.</li> </ul>
